

The Nyland Intelligencer

A Theme to Inspire

New Year's Gala Theme a startling departure from past years.

Tacoma's premier, mostly child-friendly, east-coast timezone New Year's Eve Party takes the bold step of introducing a theme for 2011. "We've never actually had a unifying theme, so this is something we are really excited about," reports party co-chair

Henry Nyland. "Our theme, Let's Party, really pulls together many of the elements critical to a successful event." According to Mr. Nyland, this year's theme drives home the core elements to any Nyland family party - namely people and fun.

9:00pm Toast declared Legal!

After 3 years of waiting, the devastating DOJ vs. Nyland Family lawsuit was overturned by the US Supreme Court. "I've said it before, and I'll say it again, the East Coast Timezone (9:00pm) Ringing of the bell is all about solidarity with our East-coast brethren, not some pathetic cop-out because we can't make it to midnight," declared Frank McFarten, legal council for the Nyland Party Foundation.

Wine Merchant Astonished!

It started like any other day, but local merchant Bill the Wine Guy was in for a shocker. Near midday, Bill was amazed at the quality of sparkling wine purchased for the Nyland New Year Gala. "He normally buys a bottle or two of the good stuff, but this year he really surprised me with both volume and quantity", reported owner Bill the Wine Guy. On a similar note, sources with Metropolitan Market noted substantial "top shelf" sparkling juice purchases, unusual for the Nyland family even after quarterly bonuses.

Grazing Foods Galore

Those lucky enough to receive a 2011 Nyland New Year's Eve Gala party invite will certainly have gourmet dining options, anonymous sources report. Not only will the foods be delicious, but each is specially selected to enhance your luck.

Traditional favorites, such as Jiaozi and Onion Rings will be served, as well as a few surprises. And if this year's guests bring anything close to last years spread, attendees will experience the euphoria reserved for diners at Tacoma's premier dining establishments.

Export Regulation Threatens Tradition

Recent changes to German export law prevents the export of lead figurines, jeopardizing New Year's fortune telling activities. The German Corner, the sole US Bleigießen importer, was unable to acquire any new lead figures, and has been sold out since early 2011.

According to P.P. Johnson with the Center for Disease Control "Without access to toxic lead this New Year's Eve, many will need to find lead-free means to induce vomiting or lower their children's IQ."

One local party, however, has enough lead for one more year. "We are forced to deplete our strategic reserves, but we'll have enough for all," reports party host Max Nyland.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT

Nyland 2011 New Year's Gala - Saturday, Dec. 31st, anytime after 5:00pm. Bring a dish to share and join the fun. There will be bleigießen, dancing in the Discoteca, torching bad habits, toasts, noshing, legos, S'mores, and much, much more. We'll ring in the new Year at 9:00pm, and a second time at Midnight. RSVP to (253) 756-7939 or gnyland@drizzle.com or just show on up.